TWO OTHERS MEET DEATH

Bombs Hurlled at Carriage Containing Prominent Russians, Two Being Reduced to Atoms, Also Coachman, and Couple More Wounded.

St. Petersburg, July 16.—General Altkhahoff, governor general of Kutais, whose rigorous methods of suppressing disorders in Transcaucasia, brought down upon him the enmity of the Revolutionists, was killed by bomb at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning as he was returning to his home from his club.

Madame Gliboff, wife of General Gliboff, and the coachman who was driving the carriage was also blown to pieces by bombs thrown at the conveyance. A son of General Altkhahoff and daughter of General Gliboff sustained serious injuries. The bombs were hurled in Bebezeff street.

General Altkhahoff was nicknamed "Wild Beast" by Cossack members of the lower house of parliament, who often referred to his cruelty in the Kullas district, where he led a number of punitive expeditions to stamp out disorders.

General Altkhahoff was seriously injured by a bomb at Borjani May 30 of last year. This bomb was thrown just as he was about to take a train for Tiflis. Its explosion seriously wounded, in addition to the general, a member of his staff and several Cossacks. The remainder of the Cossacks fired into the crowd, killing many persons and then burned to the ground the buildings into which the people fled. The bombs were thrown at Alexandropol, Russia.

BLOWN ACROSS STREET.

Front of Grocery Store in "Little Italy" Completely Demolished.

New York, July 16.—"Little Italy," in East Harlem, was the scene of a terrific explosion early Tuesday. The entire front of the grocery store of Marie Latadubo, who recently received attention from the Black Hand society in the form of threatening letters was blown clear across the street and hundreds of windows of neighboring houses shattered, so strong was the force of the explosion. The district had been celebrating the feast of Our Lady of Carmel and a crowd of possibly 10,000 persons were still in the streets in the vicinity when the explosion occurred. There was a temporary panic, but the police made the remarkable announcement that not a single person had been hurt. The property damage aggregates $5,000.

SECTION FOREMAN'S QUEST.

Vice President Fairbanks For Some Time Sat on Baggage Truck.

Portland, Ore., July 16.—For several hours Vice President Fairbanks, seated on a baggage truck, entertained workmen of a railroad section at Goble, Ore., an out of the way siding, forty miles north of Portland, where, through a misunderstanding, he was left off the train to await the arrival of a reception committee. Mr. Fairbanks recognized an old acquaintance in the section foreman, who asked the vice president to his house for breakfast. It was nearly noon when Mr. Fairbanks arrived at Astoria. He was tendered an enthusiastic reception and during his stay there visited the United States cruiser Charleston.

WROTE WRONG WORD.

Alabama Girl Came Near Serving Twenty Years Instead of Months.

Montgomery, July 16.—Because of a mistake of the court clerk, who wrote "years" instead of "months," Rhena Rivers, a girl of Houston county, almost served out twenty years for twenty months' sentence at the Alabama mines. She died just before her term was up. The clerk in making out the papers changed months to years and the mistake was only recently discovered. A bill was introduced in the legislature to pay the mother of the girl for the overtime served.

SEEK WITNESSES.

Jury In Hargis Case May Be Secured In Another County.

Sandy Hook, Ky., July 16.—Special bailiffs from Special Judge Morris' court left for various portions of Breathitt, Perry and other mountain counties to secure prosecution of witnesses in the case of Judge James Hargis, who is charged with the murder of B. D. Cox. Subpoenas have also been sent to Ohio, Oklahoma and Tennessee for important witnesses. The sheriff and deputies were ordered to summon a special panel from which to select the jury. There are about 400 eligible jurymen in Elliott county. It is believed the jury may have to be secured from another county and Carter county may be selected.

Terrible Results of Blowup on Battleship Georgia.

EIGHT SOULS LEAVE BODY

Eyes Burned Out and Other Injuries of Like Frightful Character Outcome of a Dreadful Disaster Off the Coast of Massachusetts.

Boston, July 16.—Eight men dead and thirteen injured, of whom two were on the dangerous list at the United States naval hospital at Chelsea, was the grim record at a late hour Monday night of the result of a powder explosion on the battleship Georgia off Provincetown. Six were dead when the battleship reached here and two more, one of them Lieutenant Casper Goodrich of Brooklyn, N. Y., son of Rear Admiral Goodrich, died later at the hospital.

Rear Admiral Goodrich accompanied by Mrs. Goodrich and their two daughters, arrived here late Monday night and went at once to the bedside of Lieutenant Goodrich at the naval hospital. They found the injured man already unconscious and dying.

The family had been at the bedside of Lieutenant Goodrich less than half an hour when he succumbed to his injuries. While unconscious most of the time, the dying man rallied a bit just before his death and it is said he seemingly recognized his father, but during this short interval of semi-consciousness he was unable to speak.

As soon as he had received the news of the disaster Rear Admiral Albert S. Snow, commandant of the Charlestown navy yard, made complete arrangements for the reception of the injured. The naval hospital at Chelsea was prepared for the sufferers and ambulances were furnished by the naval hospital, the soldiers home, and the cities of Boston and Chelsea. Not until a half hour before the Georgia came up to her dock at the navy yard was it known that there had been any fatalities. On the way across Massachusetts Bay Midshipman Goldthwaite succumbed to his tortures and a little later death ended the sufferings of Turret Captain Thatcher and Seaman Burke, Thomas and Miller. Seaman Hamilton died while the ship was approaching the navy yard pier. When the Georgia arrived at the navy yard dock a great crowd was awaiting her as well as a large corps of newspaper men and three priests, the latter believing that they might be called upon to administer the consolations of the Roman Catholic church to dying sufferers of that faith.

With the exception of the officers and the priests, however, no one was allowed on the dock. A detachment of marines armed with fixed bayonets kept the crowd at a respectable distance and no one was allowed to pass down the pier. As soon as the ship was made fast to the dock five ambulances drove up to receive the injured men.

The sufferers were borne down the gangplank on stretchers and placed in the ambulances, which carried them to the naval hospital but a short distance away. Two ards were set aside on the second floor of the hospital for the injured, and Lieutenant Goodrich was cared for in a separate ward.

A message also came from Midshipman Goldthwaite's parents in Kentucky asking if their son was alive and if he would live until they could reach him. The return message conveyed the information that he was dead. The relatives of the dead have been notified that the bodies are at the hospital and asked what disposition shall be made of them. If any are not taken away they will be buried in the graveyard near the shipyard.

Both the living and dead were found to be terribly burned. Three of the men were burned beyond recognition. Eyes were burned out and faces, bodies and legs and arms blackened. Soon after the men had been placed in their cots in the ward it was seen that Lieutenant Goodrich, Pair, Walsh and Thomas had but a short time to live. Six doctors and attendants were constantly watching at the bedside of Lieutenant Goodrich who was barely alive and at 6:30 o'clock it was thought a half hour would put him beyond suffering. Then he rallied enough to give the physicians hope that his father would be in time to see him alive. Thomas was at this time suffering untold agony, begging piteously that he might live, but his doctors did not believe he would last through the night.

Several incidents were told of the coolness and heroism of some of the men just after the explosion. Chaplain Charlton, was the first officer to reach the turret. The first man he found was Midshipman Cruise, who was terribly injured. He would not allow the chaplain to do anything for him, but said: "Let me alone; I am all right. Look after those other fellows."

None of Embassy Hurt.

Washington, July 16.—Ambassador Leishmann cables that no one connected with the embassy was injured in the explosion which broke all windows in the building. No cause is given for the act.

CONSOLATION OF THE BIBLE.

That is a remarkable personal testimony to the value of Bible study given by Rev. Samuel T. Spear, D. D., who is now in his seventy-ninth year and who has been a minister for more than half a century. Special circumstances of bereavement and sorrow, resulting from the death of all the immediate members of his family led him five years ago to resolve to spend at least one hour each day during the remainder of his life in systematic study of the Bible for his own personal spiritual growth. The hour selected was the one preceding the morning meal. After five years of this fixed habit he testifies that the light of God's countenance has shone upon him in his social and domestic darkness, and he can now appropriate as his own the words of the Psalmist and say: "In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul."

Among other benefits that Dr. Spears mentions is the cheering compensation of meditative hope as a soothing balm to bereaved and afflicted sensibility, furnished by the increased persuasion that his loved ones are simply absent from him for a time and not lost forever; that he shall meet them again, know them, love them and be loved by them in the paradise of God. Only the word of God can give this assurance.—Christian Observer.

THE SALTON SEA.

It is now conceded that the Colorado river is permanently confined to its banks, and will no longer form the Salton sea. The late floods sent more water down the Colorado than at any time during the 30 years the water has been measured, and the levee built by Col. Randolph kept all the water in the river, which it scoured out, making the outlet to the Gulf of California as large as it formerly was. After standing this strain it is safe to say the work is permanent, although it will be occasionally watched, and at the least sign of weakness will be repaired. The new river is carrying about as much water into the sea as evaporates, thus keeping the sea up to its present level, and it may also be a permanent institution. The water is being carried into the Imperial valley, and immense crops are being grown. The silt carried in by this water is gradually filling up the places that have been washed out, and the valley is resuming normal conditions. This section of country is being furnished with cantaloupes from the valley, and they are as fine as any grown at Rocky Ford.—Lordsburg Liberal.

FRIGHTFUL FATE.

Polish Girl Falls Victim to an Explosion of Coal Oil.

Bremond, Tex., July 16.—A Polish family residing five miles west of here lost their all in the burning of the house. The husband was in town, the wife and one girl, about twelve years old, were at home, and the girl went into the cook room and saw the roof falling in, the fire falling a can of oil, which exploded, and at once the girl was in flames, with the mother fighting for the life of the girl. A near neighbor arrived and jerked all the clothing off the girl, wrapped her in a sheet and went for medical aid. The girl lived but a few hours after the rescue. The mother was burned about the hands and head, but not seriously. About $300 in currency was burned, with all household goods, furniture, etc. The loss of the house amounted to about $400.

KATY FOUND GUILTY.

Evidence Furnished by Muskogee Traffic Bureau.

Muskogee, July 16.—The Phoenix says: Basing its opinion upon evidence furnished it by the Muskogee traffic bureau and Commercial club, the inter-state commerce commission has found the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad company guilty of discriminating against certain Indian Territory shippers, according to an official letter here today by Interstate Commerce Commissioner F. K. Lane. At a hearing held here in February evidence was presented to the commission to prove that the railroads shipped cotton through this city to South McAlester, refusing to stop here, thereby favoring a South McAlester cotton company. The Gulf Compress company of this city was obliged to cease operations, suffering great loss, because, it was charged, the railroad refused to deliver cotton from nearby towns in this city. Much of the cotton carried by the railroad to South McAlester had to pass through this city. The Muskogee traffic bureau failed in its attempt to prove the railroad was guilty of rebating.

CORBETT COWHIDED.

Three Whitecappers Give Him an Unmerciful Flogging.

Oklahoma, City, July 16.—His back a mass of welts and bruises from a horse-whipping given him by three whitecappers, William Corbett, a farmer living northeast of this city, appeared before the authorities and swore out complaints. He also asked that two men already in the county jail, charged with the larceny of chickens, be held as accomplices to the whitecapping. Corbett claims he was forced to leave his buggy while en route to his home from Edmund and be subjected to a horsewhipping by three men unknown to him.

UNGRATEFUL WRETCHES.

Ask Farmer to Allow Them to Ride and Then Rob Him.

Mineola, Tex., July 16.—Albert Bailey, who lives about two miles east of Mineola, while on his way home was robbed by two negroes. The negroes asked Mr. Bailey to let them ride and he gave them permission to do so. On the road they relieved him of $17.91.

Constable W. H. Willingham captured the negroes about seven miles northwest of town and brought them here and placed them in the calaboose. They were taken to Quitman, where they pleaded guilty and were placed on the county farm. The money was refunded.

AWFUL ACCUSATION.

Negro Said to Have Been Knocked Senseless and Thrown Overboard.

St. Louis, July 16.—Accused of having struck a negro roustabout senseless and then throwing him overboard, where he was drowned, William H. Leyhe, captain of the steamer Grey Eagle, and one of the members of the Eagle Packet company and his two mates were taken to the police station after a public had a hard struggle with a mob of 700 blacks, who sought to tear the steamboat men to pieces. The negro, Priest Deaman, known as "Crying John", sank as soon as he struck the water and his body has not been recovered. The struggle between the officers and the negro began in a dispute over wages, Deaman having been chosen spokesman for the entire force of roustabouts.

This For Catarrh.

See tests are now being supplied by mail to all Catarrh sufferers. There is no expense—no obligation whatever. Dr. Shoop is combining Oil of Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, Oil of Wintergreen, etc., and is incorporating these ingredients into a pure, snow-white cream-like Imported Petrolatum. This Cream—Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy—gives immediate and lasting relief to catarrh of the nose and throat. That all may first test it free, these trial boxes are being mailed without charge, simply to encourage these tests and thus fully demonstrate, beyond doubt, the value of this combination.

If Catarrh has extended down to the stomach or bowels, then Dr. Shoop's Restorative must also be used internally if a complete cure is to be expected. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. To Stop Piles Try This.

Piles get instant relief, when Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment is applied. It's a Pile Cure, remember, and it is good for nothing else whatever except piles.

General Ointments, for many uses, can't possibly cure piles. A pile ointment must be specific. Every aim of its maker must be directed specifically toward piles alone. Says Dr. Shoop, "I make three valuable ointments, and yet, one only—Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment—will bring help to pile sufferers". Even then, in old chronic cases, originating because of a torpid liver, with biliousness, I prescribe my Dr. Shoop's Restorative internally while using Magic Ointment locally or externally. Keep in mind this fact, please, that the large blood vessels of the liver originate in the walls of the rectum, where piles arise. Obstruct these vessels in the liver and piles instantly appear. Dr. Shoop's Restorative corrects stomach and liver sluggishness, hence its value as an aid to Magic Ointment in the treatment of obstinate cases of piles. None genuine without Dr. Shoop's name on the package. Sold at 50 cents by

FARM HANDS' HARD LUCK

One Shot to Death and Other Seriously Wounded.

Cherryvale, Kan., July 16.—Two robbers held up a St. Louis and San Francisco freight train five miles east of this place at an early hour today. They shot and killed O. J. Brown and seriously wounded Otis Taylor, harvest hands.

The victims were on their way home to western Kansas after having worked in wheat fields in the southern part of the state. They resisted the efforts of the road men to rob them of their earnings. Brown was shot and died almost instantly. Taylor was wounded twice, one bullet striking him in the left shoulder, and the second in the stomach. Taylor was brought to the hospital here. He is in a serious condition, but may recover. The robbers escaped. A posse started in pursuit.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, causes nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

ELKS IN EVIDENCE.

City of Brotherly Love Entertains Order.

Philadelphia, July 16.—The forty-third grand lodge session of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks' was formerly opened here Monday at the Grand Opera House when the visiting delegates and members of the organization were welcomed to the city on behalf of the Elks' reunion committee by Daniel J. Shearn. He said he would leave it to the visitors to say whether the proposition made to the convention at Denver last year that the Elks would be royally welcomed to Philadelphia had been fulfilled. The delegates shouted in chorus: "Philadelphia promises are good!"

Mayor Reyburn greeted the delegates on behalf of the municipality, offering them the freedom of the city. He said he was glad of the opportunity to show the world that Philadelphia is not so bad as it is painted.

Governor Stuart welcomed the Elks to Pennsylvania. In greeting the Elks the governor said: "I find the Elks should be warmly received in the city of Brotherly Love and in a state to which their coming must awaken memories sacred to every patriotic heart." He was proud, he said, to welcome the Elks, and as the head of the municipality had tendered them a perfect freedom, so he would do on behalf of the state.

Grand Exalted Ruler Henry A. Melvin responded to the welcome.

Grand Secretary Frederick Robinson issued his statistical and financial report, in which it was shown that 41,900 were received into the order during the year. There were sixty-six new lodges instituted and the total membership is now 254,532. The largest lodge is Brooklyn No. 22, which has 2,440 members; New York is second and New Orleans, Philadelphia and Chicago follow.

One of the features was the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" around the city hall at 11 o'clock Monday night by hundreds of members of the organization.
